

An Explanation

In the last issue of The Standard the heading for the Kanata Theatre children's play, "Loyalist play rated PG" may seem to be confusing. The play is actually suitable for all children above the Grade 1 level and parents of course, if they wish to go with them.

Part of the cast for Kanata Theatre presentation, "Choice for the Future", a contribution to Ontario's Bicentennial celebration set for the weekend of Nov. 9 to 11.

Kanata Theatre Loyalist play rated PG

It is not often Kanata residents get the opportunity to take the whole family out for an evening of theatre, but very soon they will have the chance... Kanata Theatre presents, "Choice for the Future" by Lawrence O'Farrell, as their contribution to Ontario's Bicentennial celebrations. The production was assisted by a grant from Wintario's "Celebration Ontario" fund.

The large cast includes: Juliet Haynes, Bob Knight, Joy Forbes, Jane Francis, Eric Anderson, Liane Freedman, Barrie Kirk, Andrew Williams, Elisa White, Ruth White, Bill Williams, Anne Marwood, Jim Ritchie, and many other members of Kanata Theatre and their children. The play, directed by Dewi and Eufron Williams, is recommended for children from Grade one and up, and their families, and opens on Friday Nov. 9 at 8 p.m., Saturday Nov. 10 at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. and Sunday Nov. 11 at 2 p.m. Tickets $1 at the door at the Earl of March Secondary School. For more information, please phone Kanata Theatre Box Office, 592-1715.
