Think Theatre!
The Box Office has gift certificates for one or more plays, or for the season. These make ideal birthday or Christmas presents.

In addition to providing a season of five main-stage plays, Kanata Theatre also produces a children's play during the Christmas period, plus other productions from time to time.

For the year 2000, the children's play will be The Haunted Castle by Beth McMaster. A friendly ghost helps Jamie and the princess discover the villainy of a visiting prince and a way to save the kingdom. This is a musical play that will delight our younger audience. There will be two performances at the Ron Maslin Playhouse on Sunday, December 17. It will also be presented at the City of Kanata celebration on December 31st.
