Kanata Theatre's heart and soul are the dedicated team of volunteers; all of whom share a love of theatre and the arts!

If you're interested in volunteering with us, please visit our website to fill out a membership application online or drop by the box office to obtain a paper copy.

Kanata Theatre is a not-for-profit organization. Every dollar goes directly back into productions you enjoy all season long! Please consider including a donation with your subscription purchase; every donation over $20 is eligible for a tax donation.

This season of shows promises to inspire you with the talent and professionalism that has made Kanata Theatre one of the National Capital Region's most well-regarded community playhouses. As always, we are grateful to you – our patrons – for inspiring us, giving us joy and supporting us as we bring great theatre to the west end!

2022 Holiday Show

Just So

Directed by Ellen Morris-Seguin. Dec 27-30, 2022

Music and Lyrics by GEORGE STILES ANTHONY DREWE
Inspired by the stories of RUDYARD KIPLING
Orchestrations by CHRISTOPHER JAHNKE
Associate Orchestrator JOHN CLANCY

Just So is a fantastical musical based on a series of short stories by Rudyard Kipling. Join us on a musical journey with the Elephant Child and the Kolokolo Bird guided by the whimsical Eldest Magician. We encounter a series of animals as they begin to evolve into the forms we know today as our adventurer's travel across the world in search of a mysterious foe.

2022-2023

The Marvelous Wonderettes, written and created by Roger Bean

Director Aileen Szkwarek
Sept 20-Oct 1, 2022

It is the 1958 Springfield High School senior prom, and four teenage girls who are the school's "trophy-winning" song leaders are asked to step in as the entertainment. As they sing and dance to popular songs of the 1950s, tension between two of the girls, Betty Jean and Cindy Lou, increase as they fight about a boy. Missy and Suzy, also sing about their loves. Act Two takes place ten years later, at the girls' ten year reunion. The girls have again been asked to provide the entertainment. Each of the girls tells the story of the man in her life and what has happened since high school. The evening ends as magically as it began.

Doubt, A Parable by John Patrick Shanley

Director Bev Brooks
Nov 8-Nov 19, 2022

In this brilliant and powerful drama, Sister Aloysius, a Bronx school principal, takes matters into her own hands when she suspects the young Father Flynn of improper relations with one of the male students.

Almost, Maine by John Cariani

Director Wendy Wagner
Jan 31-Feb 11, 2023

Welcome to Almost, Maine, a place that's so far north, it's almost not in the United States. It's almost in Canada. And it's not quite a town, because its residents never got around to getting organized. So it almost doesn't exist. One cold, clear, winter night, as the northern lights hover in the star-filled sky above, the residents of Almost, Maine, find themselves falling in and out of love in unexpected and hilarious ways. Knees are bruised. Hearts are broken. But the bruises heal, and the hearts mend—almost—in this delightful midwinter night's dream.

Having Relations by Sarah Quick

Director Val Bogan
March 21-April 1, 2023

Rural Ontario boy Deaglan O'Doyle is obsessed with having relations. He dreams about it, talks about little else and now he's turned to the internet to assist his search. A play about love, sex and all things Irish!

Quartet by Ronald Harwood

Director Barbara Kobolak
May 9-20, 2023

The story takes place in a home for retired musicians and centres on four retired opera singers. However, their peace is destroyed with the arrival of Jean, an old friend of theirs who worked successfully on a Quartet with them many years ago. ... The problem is, she is/was not a nice person.
